Student and Community Theater Productions: Students participated in full-scale musical theater productions and seasonal recitals that promoted teamwork, performance skills, and artistic growth. Shows were open to the public and held both in-house and at external venues. Many special needs and neurodiverse students performed through both mainstream and specialized programming. Scholarships and fee waivers helped ensure that all students could participate. In addition to student productions, the organization also co-hosted a small number of community theater performances through a 50/50 ticket-sharing model with external adult and youth theater groups. These performances helped fulfill Imagine's mission of broadening community access to live theater.

Description: Imagine Performing Arts Center provided year-round performing arts instruction in dance, acting, and musical theater for children and teens. Students participated in weekly classes in ballet, tap, jazz, lyrical, and theater, building skills, confidence, and creativity. Classes were taught by trained instructors and open to all levels of experience. Many students with diverse abilities were included in these mainstream classes, with individualized support and a welcoming environment for a wide range of learning styles. Scholarships were awarded to students in this program to reduce financial barriers and ensure inclusive access.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Diverse Abilities Dance and Theater Program: Imagine offered inclusive performing arts programs tailored to individuals with physical, cognitive, and neurodiverse needs. These classes were fully scholarship-based, offering a safe, joyful, and accessible space for students to participate in weekly dance and theater activities. Students also performed in recitals and showcases alongside their peers.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Summer Camps: The organization ran a series of themed performing arts camps over the summer for students ages 5 to 12. Camps included activities in dance, music, theater games, and storytelling, and concluded with informal performances for families. These short-format camps helped introduce new students to the arts and fostered confidence and creativity. The program welcomed students of all abilities, including those who are neurodiverse, and offered a supportive environment tailored to meet a range of learning and social needs.

TY 2023 Reasonable Cause Explanation

Name: Imagine Performing Arts Centers Inc

Software ID: 23018249

Software Version: v1.00

Explanation: Reasonable Cause for Late Filing - Form 990 for Tax Year 2023
Imagine Performing Arts Center became officially recognized as a 501(c)(3) nonprofit on September 23, 2024, though the organization began operating with a charitable mission in early 2023. Due to delays in the filing of form 1023 and the subsequent delay of the IRS determination process and the complexity of preparing a first-time Form 990 without professional assistance, the return was not filed by the original deadline. The delay was not due to willful neglect, and the organization has made every effort to ensure accurate and transparent reporting. As a new and small nonprofit run by volunteer leadership, we respectfully request that any penalties be waived due to reasonable cause. We are committed to full compliance in future years.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	The Executive Director's compensation was reviewed and approved by the Board of Directors based on the organization's available budget and salary benchmarks from similar-sized performing arts nonprofits. The Board acknowledged that the salary was significantly below the market rate but approved it due to limited financial resources and the Executive Director's commitment to sustaining the organization. This process was last reviewed and documented in 2023. No additional compensation was provided. No other officers or key employees received compensation requiring a formal review process.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19	Imagine Performing Arts Center makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements available to the public upon request. Members of the public may contact the organization by email or through its website to request copies of these materials. The organization also shares key financial information and updates through its annual reports and donor communications.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part XI, Line 9	The organization acquired $98,000 in capital assets during the tax year, funded entirely through loans. $11,700 of those loans were repaid during the year. Since these asset purchases were not reflected in revenue, the increase in net assets appears as a reconciling item in Line 9. This explains the difference between the operational deficit and the year-end net asset balance of $11,700.
